
REVEL COACH

Marcy Stoudt

SALES BIO

Marcy Stoudt is a seasoned sales leader dedicated to shaping the future of talent acquisition and executive coaching. As the founder of Revel Search and Revel Coach, Marcy collaborates with corporate clients to develop innovative strategies for attracting, advancing, and retaining top-tier talent.

During her 22 years at Allegis Group, Marcy served as the first female Vice President, leading a team of 300 producers and delivering four consecutive years of revenue results at 18% CAGR, averaging $320 million annually. Other roles included VP of Strategy and Marketing for the $3 Billion Operating Company, TEKsystems; and leading their client's Customer Experience Strategy for the Target Mobile's outsourced sales team at 1,540 Target locations, fostering executive-level relationships with Target and Apple.

Marcy and her husband, Chris, live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, where they enjoy the love of life with their three kids—currently representing Ole Miss, the University of Florida, and Ponte Vedra High School.

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP BIO

Marcy Stoudt is in the business of leadership. Her companies, Revel Search and Revel Coach, team up with corporate clients to identify strategies that attract, advance and retain top talent. During her 22 years at Allegis Group, Marcy served as the first female Vice President at TEKsystems, leading a team of 300 producers and delivering four consecutive years of revenue results at 18% CAGR, averaging $320 million annually. This experience influenced her passion to build an executive coaching and consulting and staffing company she wished she had when she was managing significant corporate responsibilities while navigating maternity leaves.

Marcy and her husband, Chris, live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL, where they enjoy the love of life with their three kids—currently representing Ole Miss, the University of Florida, and Ponte Vedra High School.
